If I forget you, Yerushalayim (Jerusalem), may my right hand wither away! May my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth if I fail to remember you, if I fail to count Yerushalayim the greatest of all my joys.

-Psalms 137:5-6

“Discovering Your Jewish Roots in Israel with AM Israel Tours!”

We live in awesome times and we are living in “Biblical Times” today! Prophecies are unfolding and Messiah is calling us home to Israel...let’s go together!

Shalom, Shalom beloved,

Upon landing at Ben Gurion airport, you join in with the spontaneous applause and cheer as the excitement of actually being in Israel overwhelms you. Walking through the airport to Passport Control and then on to Baggage Claim causes the anticipation of seeing Israel proper to rise within you. As we leave Baggage Claim and enter the lobby of the airport, the atmosphere thickens with cries and laughter as loved ones are reuniting with each other. We meet our guide who ushers us to the bus where we are introduced to our driver. The sky and air feel cleansing to the spirit as we board our bus for the journey to our hotel. You will soon encounter the spirit of God as He reveals His Son to you through the land, the sites, the people and through the Word, which always comes alive in Israel!

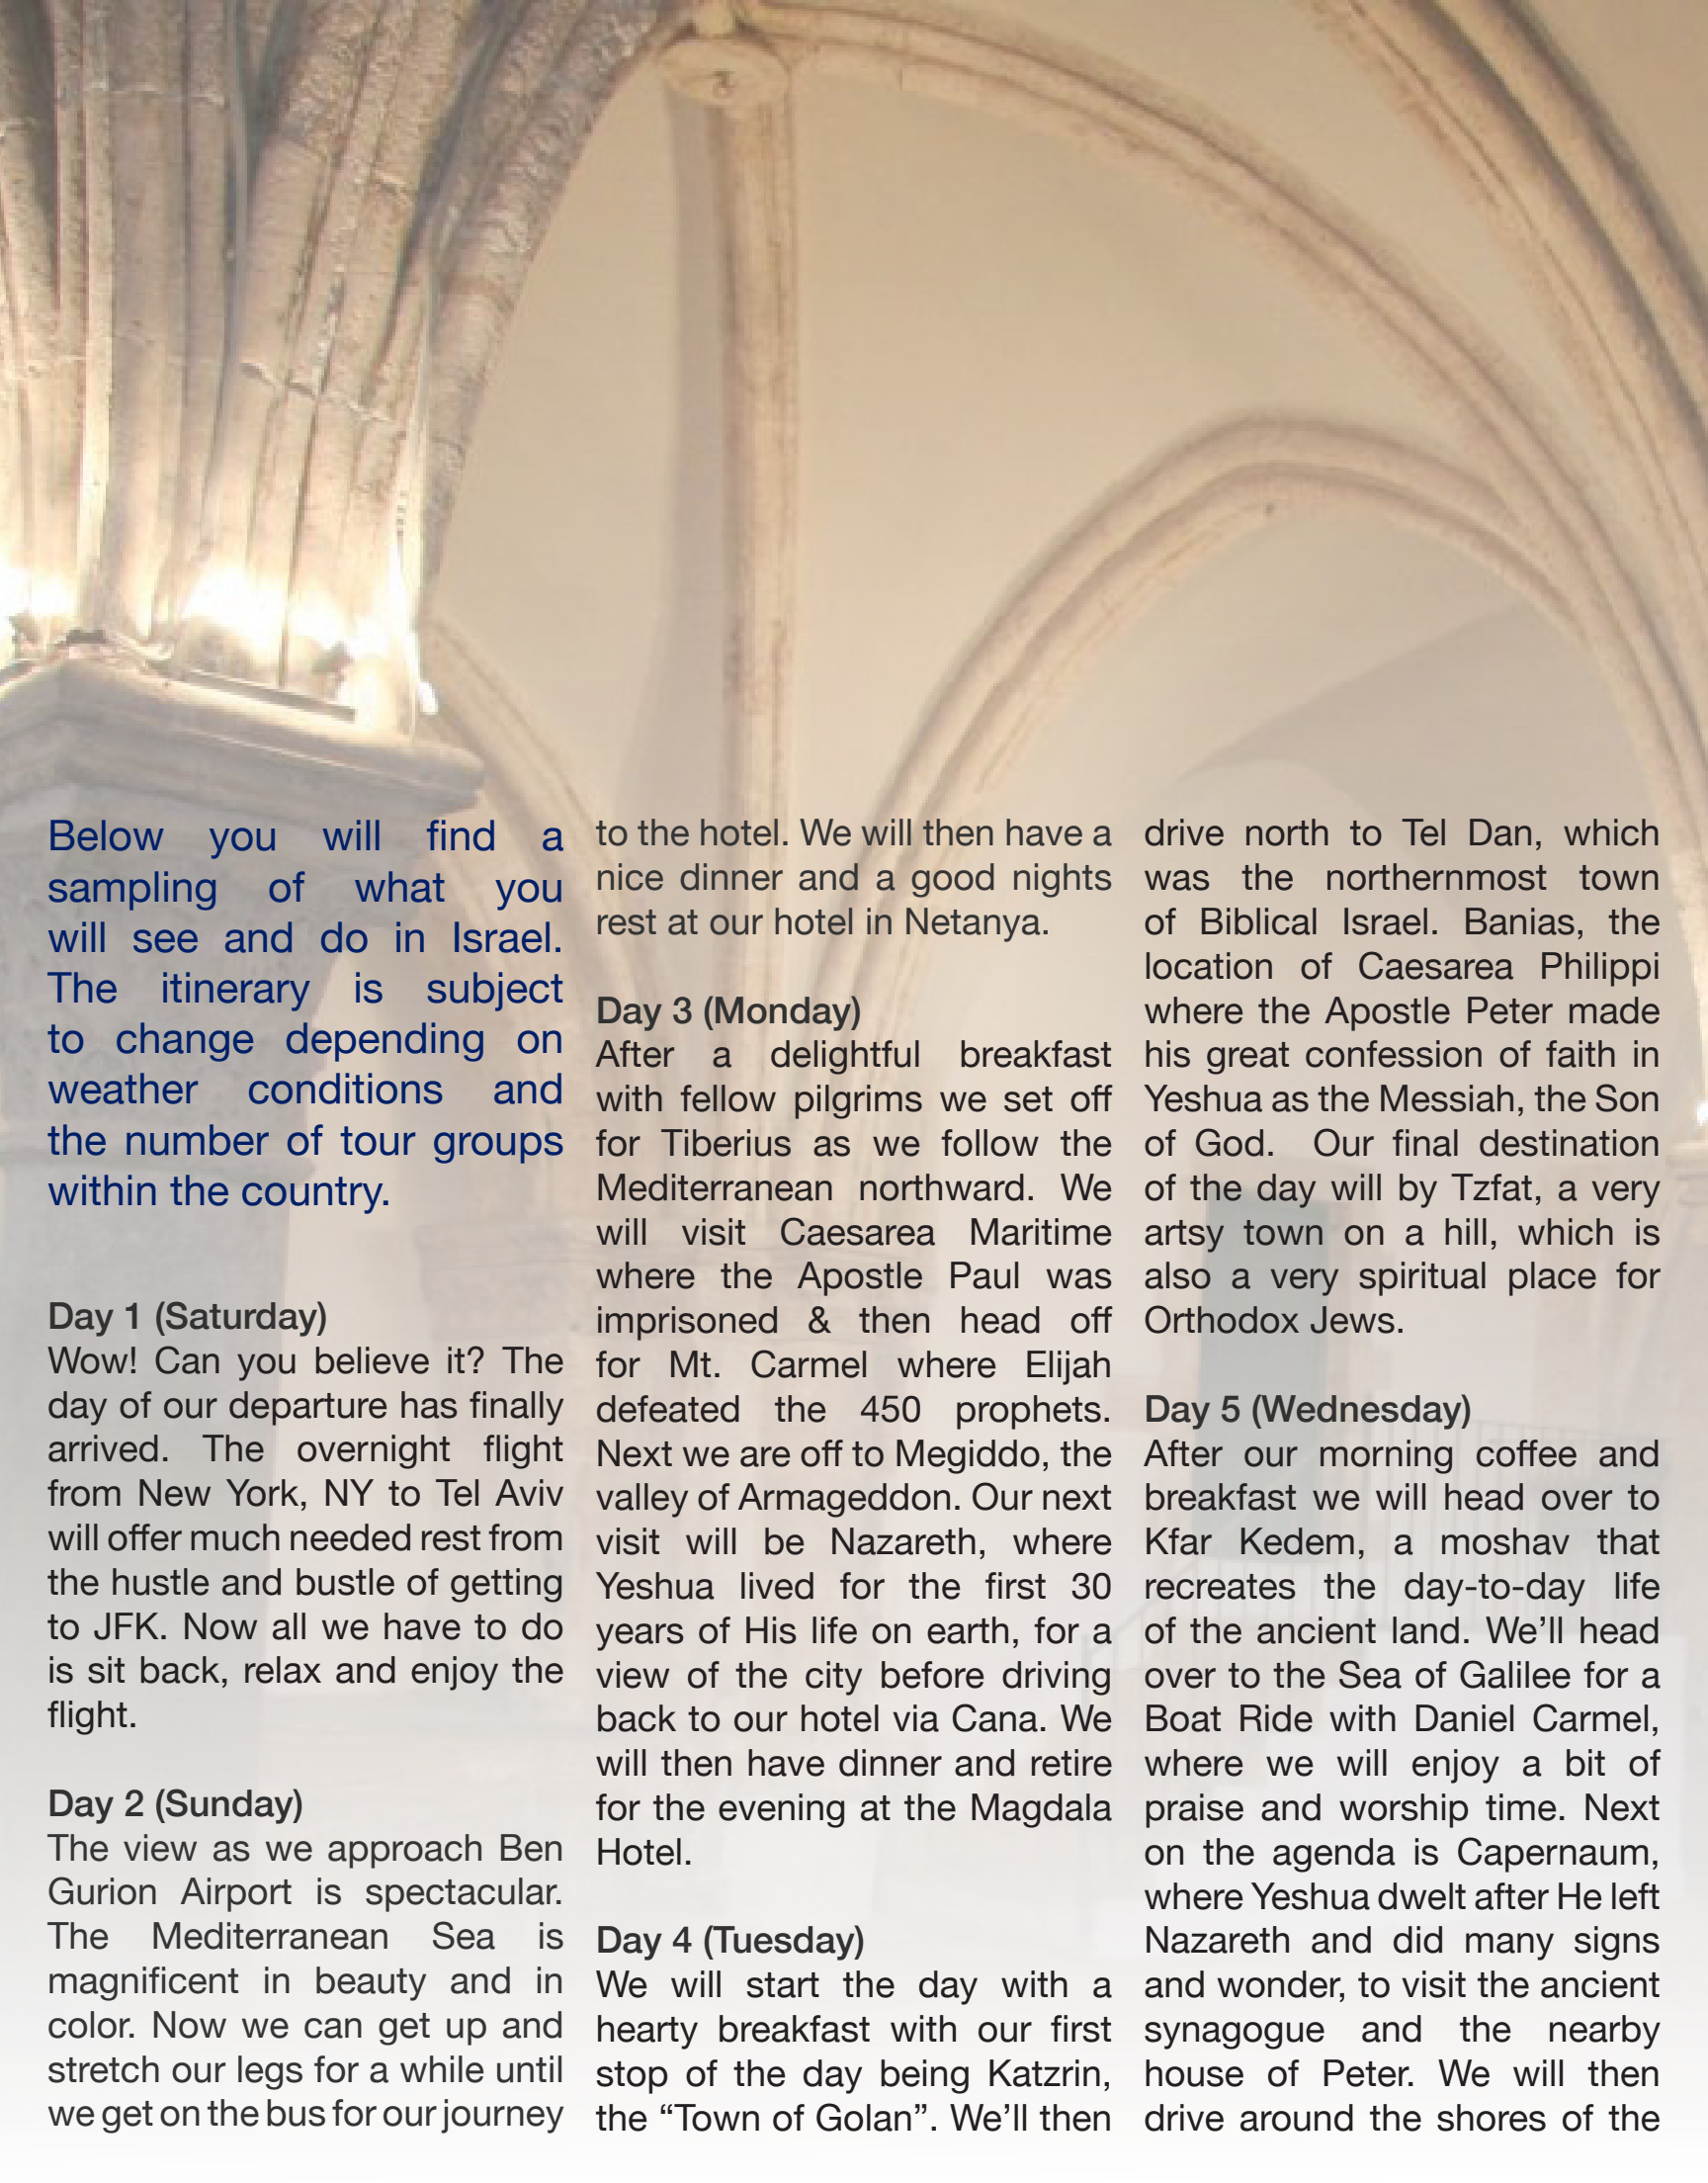

As you make your final decision to go with us, there are a few things I would like to bring to light. Please fill out the registration form and send it in with your deposit. This will confirm your reservation and secure your spot with us. Please be sure to notate your calendar once you know when the final payment is due. Please make your checks payable to: AM Israel Tours.

At this juncture, if you do not have a passport, please take the necessary steps to obtain one. If your current passport expires within 6 months of the tour date, please renew your passport. If you are a US Citizen, you will not need any other documents, aside from your passport, to gain entry into Israel. In addition, you will be glad to know that no medical shots are required.

Once you have sent in your deposit go ahead and purchase your round-trip domestic tickets to the gateway airport. As gas prices do affect the pricing of your airline ticket, please keep this in mind and act accordingly.

Please call with any questions you may have. I look forward to meeting you and experiencing Israel along side you.

Below you will find a sampling of what you will see and do in Israel. The itinerary is subject to change depending on weather conditions and the number of tour groups within the country.

Day 1 (Saturday)

Wow! Can you believe it? The day of our departure has finally arrived. The overnight flight from New York, NY to Tel Aviv will offer much needed rest from the hustle and bustle of getting to JFK. Now all we have to do is sit back, relax and enjoy the flight.

Day 2 (Sunday)

The view as we approach Ben Gurion Airport is spectacular. The Mediterranean Sea is magnificent in beauty and in color. Now we can get up and stretch our legs for a while until we get on the bus for our journey to the hotel. We will then have a nice dinner and a good nights rest at our hotel in Netanya.

Day 3 (Monday)

After a delightful breakfast with fellow pilgrims we set off for Tiberius as we follow the Mediterranean northward. We will visit Caesarea Maritime where the Apostle Paul was imprisoned & then head off for Mt. Carmel where Elijah defeated the 450 prophets. Next we are off to Megiddo, the valley of Armageddon. Our next visit will be Nazareth, where Yeshua lived for the first 30 years of His life on earth, for a view of the city before driving back to our hotel via Cana. We will then have dinner and retire for the evening at the Magdala Hotel.

Day 4 (Tuesday)

We will start the day with a hearty breakfast with our first stop of the day being Katzrin, the "Town of Golan". We'll then drive north to Tel Dan, which was the northernmost town of Biblical Israel. Baniyas, the location of Caesarea Philippi where the Apostle Peter made his great confession of faith in Yeshua as the Messiah, the Son of God. Our final destination of the day will be Tzfat, a very artsy town on a hill, which is also a very spiritual place for Orthodox Jews.

Day 5 (Wednesday)

After our morning coffee and breakfast we will head over to Kfar Kedem, a moshav that recreates the day-to-day life of the ancient land. We'll head over to the Sea of Galilee for a Boat Ride with Daniel Carmel, where we will enjoy a bit of praise and worship time. Next on the agenda is Capernaum, where Yeshua dwelt after He left Nazareth and did many signs and wonder, to visit the ancient synagogue and the nearby house of Peter. We will then drive around the shores of the Galilee to the Mt. of Beatitudes, the site of the Sermon on the Mount. Our last stop for the day will be Yardenit (Baptismal site) for those who want to be baptized.

Day 6 (Thursday)

This morning will start our journey towards Jerusalem, but our first stop along the way will be Beit She'an, an ancient Israeli city inherited by the tribe of Menasseh. We will then continue south along the Jordan Valley to the Dead Sea, the lowest spot on the face of the Earth. We will visit the remains of the Qumran settlement where the Essenes, a religious sect, lived over 2000 years ago and wrote the Dead Sea Scrolls. Next on the agenda is the overlook in Jerusalem to take pictures. Last, but not least, check in to our hotels at Prima Kings in Jerusalem.

Day 7 (Friday)

We will begin the tour by visiting the Mt. of Olives and the Garden of Gethsemane. Next we will enter the old city by way of the Lion's Gate and visit the Pools of Bethesda & the Pool Siloam. Our final and most exciting stop, the Kotel (the Western Wall) to pray and usher in the Shabbat (Sabbath), where we will join our Jewish brothers and sisters. Then we will head back to the hotel for Shabbat dinner and rest for the next day's events.

Day 8 (Saturday)

After breakfast we will drive to the Mountain Fortress of Masada, which rises to the a height of 434 meters above the level of the Dead Sea. This is where the scene of the last Jewish resistance against the Romans in 73 AD at the conclusion of which the 900 defenders put themselves to death rather than fall into the hands of the enemy. We will ascend and descend by cable car to the top of Masada for a tour. We will then head over to a spa on the Dead Sea to enjoy the sea's mineral rich waters. Next will be Ein Gedi, which was one of the cities of Judah where David found shelter from King Saul. We will watch a short film and have a short time to shop before heading back to the hotel for a shower and dinner.

Day 9 (Sunday)

After breakfast we will set off for the Ayalon Valley to Emmaus where Yeshua appeared to His two disciples. Then on to Beit Shemesh, where the battle between the Israelites and the Philistines took place in which the Philistines captured the Ark of the Covenant, which was later surrendered. Next stop, the Valley of Elah, where David the shepherd boy fought Goliath and won. Beit Guvrin will be our last stop of the day.

Day 10 (Monday)

First thing, we will head on over to the Davidson's Center, Shrine of the Book (where the Dead Sea Scrolls are on display), Temple Model, & Yad V'Shem the Holocaust Museum.

Next on the agenda is one of my personal favorites, the Temple Institute, where we will view all the articles of clothing and items that have been recreated, according to the Bible for the next Temple. We will now head back over to the Old City to the Cardo, the Jewish Quarter for some shopping and free time. Finally, back to the hotel to get ready for our farewell dinner.

Day 11 (Tuesday)

After eating our final breakfast in Jerusalem and checking out of our hotel, we will visit the Garden Tomb & Golgotha. We will then enter the Old City via the Lion's Gate before walking on through the narrow streets of the city following the Via Dolorosa. We will continue our tour to Mt. Zion to the Upper Room and King David's Tomb. Our tour has come to an end... the only thing left to do is eat dinner before heading off to Ben Gurion International Airport for our return flights home.

Many Gentiles will go and say, "Come, let's go up to the mountain of ADONAI, to the house of the G-d of Jacob! He will teach us about His ways, and we will walk in His paths." For out of Zion will go forth Torah, the Word of ADONAI from Jerusalem. Micah 4:2; Isaiah 2:3
